Volunteering

JCANS welcomes volunteers!

The organization provides opportunity for members to support activities within their community through outreach programs (education, scholarships, assisting newcomers), event planning, communications/public relations and fundraising.

Volunteering is an important part of our organization.

Mission

The mission of the Jamaican Cultural Association of Nova Scotia (JCANS) is to preserve and promote Jamaican historical and cultural heritage within the Nova Scotia community by providing a friendly environment for gatherings in which we share many stimulating aspects of our Island's culture and our common social values.
